2018 - July Events - 5778

Lawyers Without Rights: Jewish Lawyers in Germany under the Third Reich

Lawyers Without Rights captures the compelling story of the fate of Jewish lawyers under the Nazi regime, the importance of the rule of law rather than rule by law, and the role of lawyers in a democratic society. The exhibit is part of a project of the American Bar Association (ABA) Center for Human Rights.

Exhibit Opening Reception: July 2, 12:00 p.m. at Fayette Circuit Courthouse
Multipurpose Room, First Floor

The opening reception will feature Rabbi David Wirtschafter, Alice Goldstein, and Mayor Jim Gray as guest speakers.

The exhibit will remain on display through July 15. For more information about the exhibit or for various ABA Holocaust Book publications, visit www.lawyerswithoutright.com.

Jewish Federation of the Bluegrass is a co-sponsor of this exhibit.

JFS Caregiver Support Meeting

July 12, 11:00 a.m.
meets at Temple Adath Israel

This monthly meeting provides a confidential and supportive environment to allow family members, friends, and caregivers to meet for mutual support, education, and exchanging ideas with one another. For more info, contact Paula Mertens at jfs@jewishlexington.org.
